TEACHING

I am a dedicated teacher and I believe I have executed my teaching duties with a measure of success. I have taught on a number of quantitative and mathematical courses and I have supervised a large number of final year and postgraduate projects. Also my book on applied econometrics, with Professor S. Hall, has been widely used by students analysing time series. Finally I believe strongly in course development and I have developed many courses throughout my academic career.

Courses Taught

2009 – to date	Hellenic Open University (Distance Learning) Quantitative Methods (1 st Year UG)
2009 – to date	Open University of Cyprus (Distance Learning) Advanced Quantitative Methods (MSc)
2002 – 2008	City University, London Applied Econometrics (MSc) Quantitative Methods for Business Economics (MSc) Financial Economics (3 rd Year UG) Applied Econometrics (3 rd Year UG) Economics of Transition (3 rd Year UG) Mathematical Economics (3 rd Year UG) Economic Theory Treated Mathematically (2 nd Year UG)
