

Mary Leontsini, Professor of Gender and Cultural Studies, Faculty of Education, Department of Early Childhood Education, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece.

mleontsini@ecd.uoa.gr

Her work focuses mainly on issues of gender and cultural practices, gender theory, mobilities and cultural studies. Before joining the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, she has previously taught at Columbia University, University of Crete in Rethymnon and she was also a Visiting Scholar at the Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales, in Paris, Université de Grenoble, Université de Metz, Université de Toulouse etc. She is a member of many international organizations focusing on gender issues and has published extensively on gender and cultural studies related issues such as homo/bi/trans/lesbiophobia, women's reading practices, gender and social capital and women's mobilities. She is currently chairing the Gender Equality Committee of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens and she is also a founding member of the Greek Association of Women Academics (ELEGYP).