

K a r o l o s I o s i f K a v o u l a k o s

Assistant Professor /Contemporary Social Movements and Collective Action / Aristotle University of Thessaloniki

Email to: kavoulakos.karolos@ac.eap.gr

Karolos Iosif Kavoulakos, holding a Ph.D. degree in Political Sociology (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens), is Assistant Professor at the Department of Political Sciences of Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. He is Coordinator of the unit KAO62 State, Social Movements and Social and Solidarity Economy at the Hellenic Open University and member of the curriculum committee of the Post-Graduate Studies Program Social and Solidarity Economy at the Hellenic Open University. At the Aristotle University teaches Social Solidarity Economy and Commons, Social Movements, Classical Sociological Theory, Theories of Collective Action, Contemporary Forms of Extreme Right. His research interests include social movements, social and solidarity economy, commons and extreme right. He is currently writing articles on social economy, alternative spaces and social movements in Greece. He is member of the board of the Greek Political Science Association and of other International scientific associations. He has published many articles in scientific books and journals.

Selected Publications

---

1. Kavoulakos K.I. (ed) 2021, Skills in Social Economy, Trainees' Handbook and Educators Manual, University of the Aegean, (in four languages English, Spanish, Italian, Greek)
2. Adam, S., & Kavoulakos, K. I. (2020). State and Social Solidarity Economy: Friends or foes? The potential for co-construction of public policies for Social Solidarity Economy in Greece. The Greek Review of Social Research, 155, 121-150
3. Kavoulakos K.I. (2018). «Social and solidarity economy, crisis and social movements” in Serdedakis N. Aspects of the Greek Crisis, Athens, Savalas Editions, (in Greek)
4. Kavoulakos, K.I., Gritzas G. (2016), Alternative Economic and Political Spaces: civil society, social movements and spatial development, Athens, Kallipos (in Greek)
5. Gritzas, G., Kavoulakos, K.I. (2016) “Diverse economies and alternative spaces. An overview of approaches and practices” European Urban and Regional Studies (EURS) DOI: 10.1177/0969776415573778