

Vasileios Petropoulos

Asst Prof./criminal law- criminal procedure/ National University of Athens

Email to vpetropoulos@law.uoa.gr vaspetropoulos@gmail.com

Vassilios Petropoulos is Assistant Professor of Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure at the Law School of the University of Athens and member of the Patras Bar Association since 2003. He graduated from the Law School of the National Kapodistrian University of Athens (2001), holds a PhD in Criminal Law from the University of Munich (2005) and a PhD in Capital Market Law from the University of Zurich (2008), and Doctor of Law in the fields of Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, European and International Criminal Law and Economic Criminal Law at the University of Munich (2010). He was a visiting researcher at the CEGLA Institute for Interdisciplinary Legal Research at the Buchmann School of Law, Tel Aviv University during 2010.

He has been participating as an adjunct lecturer in the postgraduate program "Criminological and Criminal Approaches to Corruption, Economic and Organized Crime" of the Hellenic Open University since the beginning of the program.

Selected Publications

---

1. "The interrelation between tax crime and corruption: the Greek experience". "The correlation between tax crime and corruption: The Greek experience" (Scientific contribution to the VIRTEU project; forthcoming)
2. The application of the nemo tenetur principle in the process of imposing a sanction with penal characteristics (CJEU, C-481/19, DB v. CONSOB), Art of Crime magazine, November 2021 issue.
3. The procedural rights of the victim of defamatory acts with reference to Directive 2012/29/EU, εις: Criminal Law in Crisis and Under Crisis, Honorary Volume for Professor Ioannis Giannidis, P.N. Sakkula Publications 2020, pp.
4. The criminalization of the manipulation of a sports match through "interference with improper actions" under paras. 1,4 of a. 132 of the law. 2725/1999, The Art of Crime 5/2020.
5. Reflections on the procedural provisions of stock market offences (Law 4443/2016), Nova Criminalia, February 2019.