SAVVAS KARYDAS

Savvas Karydas was born in Volos, Greece. He studied Theatre in Athens and Television and Film in the United Kingdom.

As a filmmaker and theatre artist, he has directed both short and feature-length films, which have been selected for and received distinctions at Greek and international film festivals.

He holds two Master's degrees. His first postgraduate degree, from the Hellenic Open University (HOU), focuses on the Drama International Short Film Festival – its role and significance.

His second Master's degree, from the University of the Aegean, is in Ancient Theatre and Literary Approaches, with a thesis entitled "From Mime to Charlie Chaplin."

He also holds a PhD from the School of Fine Arts of the University of Ioannina, with a doctoral thesis entitled "Theatrical Works in Audiovisual Media – 'Theatre of Monday': Its Role and Significance."

His academic and artistic work focuses on the relationship between theatre, cinema and audiovisual media, as well as on the evolution of performance and theatrical expression across different historical and artistic forms.